4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: With respect to independent claims 1, 58, 70, 71 and 74 the instant invention is directed to a receiver for processing data and a computer for processing formatted data. The relevant prior art of record, such as Inagaki et al (6,337,715) disclose broadcasting reception apparatus and data broadcasting method. Matsakis et al (7,590,644) disclose method and apparatus of streaming data transformation using code generator and translator. Li et al (6,763,353) disclose real time process analysis method and apparatus. Dutta et al (6,993,476) disclose system and method for incorporating semantic characteristics into the format driven syntactic document transcoding. Ohtaki et al (5,123,103) disclose method and system of retrieving program specification and linking the specification by concept to retrieval request for reusing. However, neither Inagaki, Matsaki, Li, Dutta nor Ohtaki and any of the cited references teach or suggest, alone or in combination the feature of "...receive said format definition, receive additional data which conforms to the target language; produce an internal representation of the syntax and semantics, create at least one mask for use in processing additional data, the mask being based upon said internal representation; and process the additionally received data in accordance with the format definition using the mask..." as recited in the various claims limitations, in combination with other features of independent claims 1, 58, 70, 71 and 74.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
